

Venice Family Clinic

At Venice Family Clinic we believe that everyone deserves quality health care, regardless of their income, insurance or immigration status. With a network of twelve sites in Venice, Santa Monica, Mar Vista, Inglewood, and Culver City, and an extensive homeless outreach program, the Clinic provides comprehensive services including primary and specialty care, dental, vision, behavioral health, substance use treatment, health education, health insurance enrollment, and early childhood development. Patients often first come to Venice Family Clinic because no one else will see them. But they come back because they trust the Clinic's providers, they feel safe in their surroundings, they receive quality care, and they are treated with dignity.

Collaborations in Caring

The Clinic's most significant affiliation is with UCLA Health and the David Geffen School of Medicine at UCLA. Cedars-Sinai Medical Center, Kaiser Permanente of Southern California and Providence Saint John's Health Center are also key partners, providing residents, vital in-kind services, and operating funds. Venice Family Clinic trains more than 260 residents each year, laying the groundwork for their lifelong commitment to community health and the underserved.

Recognition

Venice Family Clinic is a Federally Qualified Health Center (FQHC), Designated 330e, 330h, and 330i Community Health Center, and Patient Centered Medical Home (NCQA Level 2 Recognition). The Clinic also has received the American Hospital Association's Foster G. McGaw Prize, the Pew Charitable Trust's Primary Care Achievement Award, the American Psychiatric Association's Advancing Minority Mental Health Award, and the California Health Care Foundation LEAP (Leveraging Excellence, Advancing Practice) Award.
