

HOW TO CONNECT WITH YOUR KIDS TO RAISE RESILIENT ADULTS

Research shows that kids who have a strong connection to a loving and supportive adult can better handle the stress that they will face throughout life. The connection that you create with your kids TODAY will hopefully give them the start to a healthy and happy future. It's never too late to start.

NURTURE & PROTECT KIDS AS MUCH AS POSSIBLE

Be a source of safety and support.

MOVE AND PLAY

Drum. Stretch. Throw a ball. Dance. Move inside or outside for fun, togetherness and to ease stress.

MAKE EYE CONTACT

Look at kids (babies, too). It says, "I see you. I value you. You matter. You're not alone."

SAY, "SORRY"

We all lose our patience and make mistakes. Acknowledge it, apologize, and repair relationships. It's up to us to show kids we're responsible for our moods and mistakes.

GIVE 20-SECOND HUGS

There's a reason we hug when things are hard. Safe touch is healing. Longer hugs are most helpful.

SLOW DOWN OR STOP

Rest. Take breaks. Take a walk or a few moments to reset or relax.

HUNT FOR THE GOOD

When there's pain or trauma, we look for danger. We can practice looking for joy and good stuff, too.

BE THERE FOR KIDS

It's hard to see our kids in pain. We can feel helpless. Simply being present with our kids is doing something. It shows them we are in their corner.

HELP KIDS TO EXPRESS MAD, SAD & HARD FEELINGS

Hard stuff happens. But helping kids find ways to share, talk, and process helps. Our kids learn from us.

ROUTINES

Kids feel calmer when they know what to expect. Create daily routines so they can better handle their day.
