

Southcentral Foundation

Date: September 13

Location: Anchorage, Alaska

Site Visit Deep Dive

Data driven culture/using data for population health:

Learn about Southcentral Foundation's (SCF) journey toward data management, key steps necessary when thinking about building your own data services department, and how SCF prioritizes its work using their Data Information Request Tool.

Relationship-based care: Learn about how SCF encourages teamwork and supports shared decision-making, as well as helping its employees develop and practice skills for building and maintaining effective relationships, which are important for patient and employee satisfaction.

Team-based care model: Learn about how SCF has designed a collaborative care model that manages chronic disease, controls healthcare costs, and improves overall health and wellness of patients.

Visit their website: scfnuka.com

Southcentral
Foundation

Organization Description

EHR: Cerner

Data Analytics Tools: Southcentral Foundation Data Mall

Southcentral Foundation is an Alaska Native-owned, nonprofit health care organization serving nearly 65,000 Alaska Native and American Indian people living in Anchorage, Matanuska-Susitna Valley and 55 rural villages in the Anchorage Service Unit. SCF employs more than 2,200 people. Their vision is a Native Community that enjoys physical, mental, emotional and spiritual wellness. SCF is a two-time Malcolm Baldrige National Quality Award winner and received Level III PCMH recognition. SCF's Nuka System of Care is a relationship-based, customer-owned approach to transforming health care, improving outcomes and reducing costs. SCF offers health care organizations value-based solutions for data and information management, integrated care, behavioral health, workforce development, and improvement and innovation.