

Team Based Care

Team based care approaches and influences the care provided. We have incorporated team rooms to house the majority of the clinical care team that a patient could work with.

Benefits:

Team based care offers a collaborative approach for timely and effective partnering on patient care

Opportunities:

Offers a whole team approach to health disparities, as well as, whole team attention to data that drives improvement.